MIT ACADEMY'S   DAILY BULLETIN   Tuesday, February 26, 2019

Good Morning MIT Academy!

Please stand for the Pledge of Allegiance.

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH:

We are proud to feed your mind one day at a time for Black History Month. You daily dose of history for today is: On February 26th:

The Black Panthers, also known as the Black Panther Party, was a political organization founded in 1966 by Huey Newton and Bobby Seale to challenge police brutality against the African American community. The Black Panthers' early activities primarily involved monitoring police activities in black communities in Oakland and other cities.

COLOR-GUARD COMPETION:

Last Saturday, students Xareni Ortega and Josseline Rivera used a robot to clean and do water quality testing at Lake Dalwick They pulled out tires, wigs and 30 bags of trash while working side by side with Vallejo Watershed Alliance, the US Forest Service, citizen scientists and the Sierra Club. Their mechanical mentor pulled water samples which we tested in the classroom. If you are interested in a citizen science program that monitors the coastal ecosystems of California and learn the way to use robots in real life check out MIT ASP robotics. . We monitor ecosystems and aim to provide publicly accessible, scientifically sound, long-term data to inform marine resource management and the scientific community of our findings. See Miss Guest in Room K; extension 301 about building an underwater robot after school and during EDRT-I. Dates and times vary but we will meet mostly on Wednesday and Friday afternoons. Community Service Hours can be acquired by attending cleanups and water quality testing.

AVID TIME:

Are you interested in going to college?

Do you want to learn more about how to get there? Then, AVID may be the program for you! MIT's AVID Program is now accepting applications for the 2019-2020 school year. Please see your advisory teacher or check your email for more information, or see Mr. Lee in E3.

MIT GAMING CLUB:

The MIT Gaming Club meets daily in room EV-2 during HS lunch, and meets after-school every Wednesday & Friday, from 4-6.

CALL FOR ART:

MIT Griffin Tech PTN Presents: "Call for Art". Submit an art piece for the Art Show by the new deadline of Friday, March 1st. Art can consist of a drawing, painting, sculpting, photograph or other unique art piece. Email, ptn@mitacademy.org for more information and see flyers attached.

LGBT CLUB:

A new LGBTQ club will begin meeting next week during school hours. If you're interested in joining, please email Ms. Schulman for further information. We welcome all allies and folks who identify as LGBTQ and questioning.

CLASH OF COINS TOURNAMENT:

Clash of Coins is on! Clash of Coins is a simple, competitive game that goes for 6 weeks which ends on Friday, March 15. The advisory class with the most points will receive a food party of their choice on March 22. The way it works is simple, we have put a jar in each of your advisory teacher's desks in which you can add coins in order to raise your class's points. Silver coins take away points. Pennies and dollar bills add points. Every other week, the scores will be announced.

MIT ACADEMY
Wishes the following
Student(s) a

Israel Candelario

Quote of the Week: I'm for truth, no matter who tells it. I'm for justice, no matter who it's for or against. Malcolm X