PLANET FITNESS:

From now until Sept. 1, all teens age 15-18 can work out for FREE at any Planet Fitness. I have been telling my students that it is great to start healthy habits now since it is much harder to do later in life, and that we should have at least 150 minutes of exercise a week according to the CDC. Exercise also reduces diseases, and cuts back on stress, anxiety, and depression, something many of our students struggle with.

All they have to do is have a parent/guardian sign a waiver. They could go with their friends too.

Note, there is a Planet Fitness in Vallejo off of Sonoma and Redwood.
