

Good Morning MIT Academy!

Please stand for the Pledge of Allegiance.

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

STUDENTS:

1. PR2 is all about your ID's! Please have your ID on and around your neck at all times. Starting TODAY, teachers and staff will be looking for your ID's in class, at lunch, and where ever you may be on campus. If you don't have your ID, talk with Ms. Pelora in room L. as soon as possible. Temporary ID's will only be issued for 1-2 days and must have a staff signature on it. No ID = detention.
Get a fun and funky lanyard at the dollar store, add your personality. Make the most of it! Be prepared!
2. Students, if you are released for EB-RTI, please enjoy your well-earned break either on the blacktop or large field. Please do not hang out near the classrooms on either the MS or HS campus
3. Students, when waiting for class during passing time, please do not throw balls around. This is potentially dangerous, especially in the Everest area where there are a lot of students and not much room to run around. Thank you.
4. Students who play soccer: Please be very careful where you are kicking the ball. Do not kick the ball up into the air, aim your kick at a non-player or kick it towards a building. People are being hit and hurt because of carelessness. Pay attention and respect everyone's safety. Thank you

Quote of the Week: "Twenty years from now you will be more disappointed by the things that you didn't do than by the ones you did do. So throw off the bowlines. Sail away from the safe harbor. Catch the trade winds in your sails. Explore. Dream. Discover." Mark Twain
